Life is hectic. Whether you are a full time worker, full time student or somewhere in the middle, there never seems to be enough hours in a day for all the work we have.

It isn't only work that strains our schedule. There are fun times too, such as: graduations, weddings, time with friends and family. But, fitting it all into our busy lives can be stressful.

When we get stressed, we lose our focus.

Thankfully, there is a time and place to pause to find where you stand in this world. The place is the Journey Retreat. The time is March 9, 10 & 11, 2012.

Open to young adults from high school grads to those in their early thirties . The Journey Retreat is a chance to spend time getting back to that place where you can think clearly, connect with others and re-establish your relationship with God .

We're all heading in different directions,
but we don't need to travel alone.

Journey

The question is not, "Are you on the path?"

The question is, "WHERE on the path are you?"

Who is the Journey Retreat for?

Journey is open to all young adults, both single and married, from 18 (out of high school) to those in their early 30s.

When is the Journey Retreat?

March 9, 10 & 11, 2012

We will begin at 7:00 PM at the retreat house on Friday evening, and conclude approximately 4:00 PM on Sunday.

Where is the Journey Retreat?

Claremount Retreat Center
35 Windemere Avenue
Mr. Arlington, NJ 07856

Cost? $100 per person, which includes meals on Saturday and Sunday, the retreat center and supplies. Please eat dinner before you arrive on Friday.

Transportation? All applicants should plan their own transportation. We can help arrange car pools as needed.

What should I bring?

Please bring:

- ◆ A change of clothes for each day. (Plan on bringing warm clothes, as Mt. Arlington is in the colder, north/west part of our state)
- ◆ Toiletries. Toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, soap, etc.
- ◆ A towel.
- ◆ Sheets and blankets or a sleeping bag.
- ◆ An open heart and mind.

What should I NOT bring?

- ◆ Work, of any kind. The retreat experience is aimed at giving us a chance to take a break from the everyday grind. That is not possible if we bring the very object that so often pulls us away.
- ◆ Alcohol or drugs.

Please Carefully Read Before Signing:

I, _____ hereby give permission to the staff of The Journey Retreat to seek medical treatment for me in case of an emergency. I understand the staff will make a good faith effort to contact my emergency contact if the need should arise.

I understand that this weekend retreat has been planned in order to assist in the Christian growth of young adults. It is designed to be spirit filled, informative and fun. The retreat is an alcohol and drug free event. Any substances found will be confiscated and the applicant may be sent home. I agree to be responsible for my actions and reimburse St. Francis Youth Ministry for any damages which I may cause during the retreat.

By signing below, I indicate that I have read and understand the above rules. Note: There are no refunds. A place is reserved for each applicant and paid for in advance.
